gal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit. (Loyola Press)

MARRIAGE IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS! 12. Why is marriage only between a man and a woman?

Marriage is a special kind of friendship. It is not only permanent and exclusive but also between a man and a woman. It is a celebration of the similarities and the differences, the unity-in-diversity and the complementarity of the sexes. The very design of our bodies reveals that man and woman are made for each other. Marital love is thus designed by God to make men into husbands and women into wives.

Marriage is also a unique form of friendship in another respect. It is oriented towards the having and rearing of children. The sexual union of a man and a woman is the only kind of love-making which can also result in life-making. Marital love is thus designed by God to make men into fathers and women into mothers. (This is true even for those couples who cannot have children of their own and must find other ways to nurture and support children.)

For the Church, friendships between people of the same sex cannot be marriages because they lack both the sexual complementarity and the orientation to new life which are essential marks of marriage. As we have already seen, faith and reason, scripture and tradition, reveal that sexual activity is a celebration of marital love. Homosexual acts, like other sexual acts outside of marriage or misuses of sexuality within marriage are thus a misuse of the body and of friendship. When the Church reserves marriage to heterosexual couples and asks the State to privilege these marriages in various ways so as to support couples and families, no unjust discrimination is intended or results. Rather, this simply recognizes that not all relationships are marriages. (Catholic Organization for Life and Family) (to be continued)
