Readings Next Week (May 15, 2022) 5th SUNDAY EASTER

Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27 (Paul and Barnabas proclaim the good news in many places.)

Revelation 21:1-5a (John describes his vision of a new heaven and a new earth.)

John 13:31-33a,34-35 (Jesus gives his disciples a new commandment: love one another.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel again comes from the Gospel of John. Like last week, today we hear words spoken by Jesus before his death and Resurrection. Jesus is teaching at the Last Supper.

John's Gospel does not include an institution of the Eucharist narrative; instead, Jesus washes his disciples' feet. Immediately after, Jesus predicts his betrayal by Judas. Today's Gospel follows that prediction. It can be read as a continuing explanation of Jesus' act of washing his disciples' feet. It begins with the announcement that this is the moment when the Son of Man will be glorified. This theme continues throughout John's Passion. Jesus will be glorified in his death on the cross and in his Resurrection, and the disciples will glorify Jesus in the love they show.

John's Gospel does not present a sentimental view of love. This is a type of love that is shown in service and sacrifice. It is difficult to choose to love when faced with hatred and anger. Jesus tells the disciples that all will know that they are his disciples because of the love they show for one another. This description of the early Christian community will be repeated in the Acts of the Apostles: "See how they love one another." Christian love is the hallmark of Christianity. We see it lived in the witness of the martyrs. We see it in the example of the lives of the saints. We see it in the holy women and men who live and love daily, making small and large sacrifices for others. (Loyola Press)

BIBLE FAITH SHARING SESSION HAS BEEN REGULARLY SCHEDULED every first Tuesday of the month in Highland Grove right after the 7:00PM Mass. It consists of reading, meditating and sharing of experiences based upon the forthcoming Sunday gospel. Make time and join us in prayer so as to learn and experience what it's all about. All are welcome!

"For I do not seek to understand in order that I may believe, but I believe in order to understand. For this also I believe-that unless I believe I shall not understand." St. Anselm"

The loveliest masterpiece of the heart of God is the heart of a mother." St. Therese of Lisieux

Some people can be given an entire field of roses and only see the thorns in it. Others could be given a single weed and only see the wildflower in it. Perception is a key component to gratitude and gratitude is a key component to joy.

"The Rosary is the storehouse of countless blessings." Bl. Alan de la Roche

"Successful mothers are not the ones that have never struggled, they are the one that never gave up despite the struggles. " Sharon Jaynes

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!!! HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!!!

MAY, THE MONTH OF OUR BLESSED MOTHER "The mood of springtime is embedded in the church's interior, nature's blossoming, the warm air of May evenings, human gladness in a world that is renewing itself – all these things enter in. Veneration of Mary has its place in this very particular atmosphere, for she, the virgin, shows us faith under its youthful aspect, as God's new beginning in a world that has grown old. In her we see the Christian life set forth as a youthfulness of heart, as a beauty and a waiting readiness for what is to come." -Pope Benedict XVI The month of May is traditionally dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary – and a good Catholic practice is to pray the Rosary. So here's the challenge, if you choose to accept it: Pray one rosary a day, for the month of May! This challenge is open to individuals and families too.

HOLY WATER AT THE DOOR . At the doors of every Catholic Church you will find a Holy Water Font. We dip our fingers into the water and make the Sign of the Cross whenever we enter or leave the church. This simple gesture reminds us that Baptism is the gateway to life in Christ and membership in the Church.

MARRIAGE TIP . Spring cleaning is about revitalizing our hibernating homes. It's also a great time to refresh your marriage. Make the decision as a couple to spend some time together on a mini date taking a walk or sharing a coffee; give your spouse some "guilt-free" time off from household duties; learn something new about your spouse (no matter how long you've been married!); tell your spouse why they are still special to you. Remember what it was like to be newly in love? This spring, feel that way all over again.

My grand mother always cooked tasty food. But one day, she put a burnt pie in front of my grandpa. Not just a little burnt, but black as coal. I waited to see what my grandpa would say but he just ate the pie and asked how my day was. Then I heard grandmother apologize to him for his dinner. I'll never forget his response. "Dear, I like your pie." Later, I asked him if he had told the truth. He put his arm on my shoulder and said, "Your grandma had a tough day at work. She was tired. The burnt pie didn't harm me but a sharp word could have hurt her."

We all make mistakes. We shouldn't focus on mistakes but support those we love. That's the secret of long and happy relationship.
