Readings Next Week (JULY 03, 2022) 14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 66:10-14c

I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river.

Galatians 6:14-18

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 10:1-12,17-20

Jesus sends out 72 people to announce the coming kingdom.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel begins immediately after the final verse in last Sunday's Gospel. After strong language about the difficulties of discipleship, Jesus immediately appoints 72 people to go ahead of him to every town and place he plans to visit, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is at hand. He sends them in pairs. In the Law of Moses two witnesses were needed for a testimony to be credible. It was probably also a safer way to travel.

Jesus admits it will be difficult, that he is sending them out like lambs among wolves. Yet they are to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They are to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. When they enter a house, their message is simply "peace." The response they will receive may be positive or negative. Either way, they are to know that the Kingdom of God is at hand. They are not to demand special treatment but eat and drink whatever is given them. They are to stay in one house and are not to look around for one that provides better accommodations. They are to heal the sick as a sign that the Kingdom of God is at hand for them. Like Jesus' miracles, healing is a sign of the coming of the kingdom. If the town will not receive them, they are to shake the dust from their feet and move on. Even in the case of such rejection they should know that the Kingdom of God is at hand.

When they return from their journeys, they are rejoicing because their mission has been successful. Demons were under their power because of Jesus' name. Jesus may have sent them out as lambs among wolves, but at the conclusion of this passage he assures them that they have been given power over the enemy and nothing will harm them, not even serpents and scorpions.

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties, and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest.

Pray for those in need of healing and health

ON BEHALF OF THE PARISH, I'd like to express my thanks and gratitude to the Fund Raising committee spearheaded by Sandy Cole and Evelyn Mutis and the various volunteers & donors who have given their money, time and effort in organizing the garden/yard sales. It raised the amount of $3,320.00 which will help pay for the renovations and improvements being made to the 3 churches of the parish. Thanks as well to Ted, Todd and Manfred for graciously allowing the parish to use their facility USTORE 28 for the events which made it so convenient. For being so generous and kindhearted, may the Good Lord always bless you. Fr. Vic

I'D LIKE TO EXTEND a warm welcome to Peter Penlington, Gerry Pietschmann & Brenda Bowen as new members of the parish finance committee and heartfelt thanks and gratitude to Jim Whelan & Gary Burroughs for their years of service and assistance in managing the finances of the parish. frvic

END OF LIFE DECISION-MAKING & ADVANCE CARE PLANNING ((Moirra McQueen, PhD)

2. AM I ABLE TO MAKE MY WISHES KNOWN FOR A TIME WHEN I AM UNABLE TO DECIDE FOR MYSELF?

Yes, we are encouraged to do so, first, because it is important for us to be reassured that our wishes will be respected, and second, because it will be very helpful for those whom you will have designated to carry our those wishes. It is important to have discussed your wishes with the person or persons who will make decision for you if and when you can no longer do so yourself, so that they are clear about procedures that you would or would not want to have done. (to be continued)

RENOVATION TO ST MARY'S

St. Marys Church in Chandos has undergone some recent renovations and improvements. Last year a new propane furnace was purchased in the amount of $5,014.49 dollars while an accessibility ramp and new carpet were added to the vestibule without cost from the parish. These were made possible through the generosity of some parishioners. Two box gardens were created at the front of the building and donated flowers were planted to enhance the look of the Church.

The most current improvement was having mold remediation done and the inside of the church repainted with paint that prevents mold from returning. The total cost was $3465.43 dollars. All of the statues, stations of the cross, pictures etc were taken down and cleaned during the painting process. The next step will be recarpetting the kneelers with the timeline still to be determined. (report from Pat Canning)

INDIGENOUS RECONCILIATION FUND The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) at its September 2021 meeting announced a nation-wide collective financial commitment in the amount of 30 million dollars to support healing and reconciliation initiatives for residential school survivors, their families and their communities. The Indigenous Reconciliation Fund (IRF) serves as a tangible expression of the commitment to engage in truth, reconciliation and healing with Indigenous Peoples. The Roman Catholic Diocese of Peterborough was asked and has agreed to pledge the sum of $400,000.00 The Bishop's appeal in 2022 on July 3rd & 10th will be earmarked for the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund and additionally there will be 2 other collections in 2023 for the IRF. Thank you for your generous support!
