Readings Next Week (JULY 17, 2022) 16th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Genesis 18:1-10a (Abraham entertains three strangers and is promised a son.)

Colossians 1:24-28 9The mystery hidden from ages past has now been revealed in Christ.)

Luke 10:38-429Jesus visits the house of Martha and Mary.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words "a certain man." Today's reading opens with the words "a certain woman." The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher.

Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher. (Loyola Press)

REPAIRS TO ST. JOHN VIANNEY

St. John Vianney in Highland Grove has completed repairs to lighting fixtures and bulbs. Repairs have been done to our side sacristy steps. We had dangerous trees removed and finished aggregate on the newly created parking lot. We spent $531.10 to pay the 5 loads of M gravel done by the Handy Bulldozing & Brush Control of Bancroft. Paving and labor were free of charge through the generosity of the Bancroft Concrete/Aggregates. We had the roof shingled on the foyer with materials and labor done by the Rutledge Renovations costing $2,542.50. However, from the generosity of their hearts the entire project was rendered free of charge considering it as a donation to the parish. We are now using the ramp which is near completion. Thanks to our volunteers for their time and donations that made these repairs possible. We are truly blessed to have people who heartily respond to the needs of the church. (reports from Joanne Burroughs).

END OF LIFE DECISION-MAKING & ADVANCE CARE PLANNING ((Moirra McQueen, PhD)

4. WHEN AND HOW CAN I ARRANGE END-OF- LIFE MATTERS?

Many practical matters can be seen while we are still active and aware. Many people make a will, pre-plan their funeral, appoint someone (or more than one) to be their Power of Attorney. These are actions which help us to be in control of our demise and also make sure that our wishes will be taken into account by those we have asked to speak on our behalf, if and when we become unable to do so for ourselves..From a spiritual point of view, if we are members of a church, it is important to keep the church informed of health matters, to request parish visitation where provided and to enable church members to pray for us, to receive the Sacraments, etc.. (to be continued)

“ The essence of Jesus’ teaching is love but you can only love to the extent that you are free and we are only free to the extent that we are able to say yes or not to anything.” M. Kelly
