Readings Next Week (JULY 24, 2022) 17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Genesis 18:20-32 (Abraham pleads with God to save the innocent people of Sodom and Gomorrah.)

Colossians 2:12-14 (You were buried with Christ in Baptism and also raised with him.)

Luke 11:1-13 (Jesus teaches the disciples about prayer.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

Luke gives more attention to Jesus' teachings on prayer than any other Gospel writer. He also mentions Jesus at prayer more than the others. In today's reading, from the beginning of Chapter 11 of his Gospel, Luke presents the core of Jesus' teaching on prayer. It consists of Jesus teaching a prayer to his disciples, a parable on the persistent neighbor, and assurances that God hears our prayers.

The disciples notice Jesus praying "in a certain place." They ask him to teach them to pray just as John the Baptist had taught his disciples. Jesus teaches them a simple version of the most famous Christian prayer, the Our Father, or the Lord's Prayer. Matthew's version shows signs of being shaped by public prayer. Luke's version is probably closer to the original form that Jesus taught. Stripped of much of the language we are used to, Luke's version seems simple and direct. We pray that God's name will be recognized as holy and that his rule over all will be established. This is followed by petitions for our needs for bread, for forgiveness, and for deliverance. Luke uses the more theological language of "sins" rather than "debts," which is used in Matthew's version.

Having taught his disciples a simple, daily prayer, Jesus goes on to reassure them that God answers prayers. First he tells a parable about a persistent neighbor who asks a friend for bread at midnight. The friend is already in bed and has no desire to disturb his family by opening the door. But because the neighbor is persistent, the sleeping man gets up and gives him all that he needs. If a neighbor is willing to help us if we are persistent enough, how could God not respond to our requests?

This teaching concludes with the reminder that if we seek, we will get a response. If a human father, with all his faults, knows how to give good gifts to his children, how much more will our heavenly Father give us? Instead of good gifts, however, Luke substitutes the word Holy Spirit. This foreshadows the gift of the Holy Spirit, who is central to Luke's theology and who will play an important role in the growth of the early Church after Pentecost.

The parable and the concluding teaching in this section should not lead us to think of prayer as a series of requests presented to God. Rather, as Jesus teaches in his model prayer, prayer consists in recognizing God's holiness and his rule over all things. (Loyola Press)

REPAIRS TO ST. JOHN VIANNEY

St. John Vianney in Highland Grove has completed repairs to lighting fixtures and bulbs. Repairs have been done to our side sacristy steps. We had dangerous trees removed and finished aggregate on the newly created parking lot. We spent $531.10 to pay the 5 loads of M gravel done by the Handy Bulldozing & Brush Control of Bancroft. Paving and labor were free of charge through the generosity of the Bancroft Concrete/Aggregates. We had the roof shingled on the foyer with materials and labor done by the Rutledge Renovations costing $2,542.50. However, from the generosity of their hearts the entire project was rendered free of charge considering it as a donation to the parish. We are now using the ramp which is near completion. Thanks to our volunteers for their time and donations that made these repairs possible. We are truly blessed to have people who heartily respond to the needs of the church. (reports from Joanne Burroughs).

Be Thankful

Be thankful that you don't already have everything you desire. If you did, what would there be to look forward to? Be thankful when you don't know something, for it gives you the opportunity to learn. Be thankful for the difficult times. During those times you grow. Be thankful for your limitations, because they give you opportunities for improvement. Be thankful for each new challenge, because it will build your strength and character. Be thankful for your mistakes. They will teach you valuable lessons. Be thankful when you're tired and weary, because it means you've made a difference. It's easy to be thankful for the good things. A life of rich fulfillment comes to those who are also thankful for the setbacks. Gratitude can turn a negative into a positive. Find a way to be thankful for your troubles, and they can become your blessings.

END OF LIFE DECISION-MAKING & ADVANCE CARE PLANNING ((Moiria McQueen, PhD)

5. WHAT IS AN ADVANCE DIRECTIVE PLANNING?

Making an advance planning directive of any kind means that we can express our wishes for future treatment in the event of our not being capable of making or communicating these wishes. We should choose someone competent to speak on our behalf, who will make wise decisions in specific circumstances that arise. For example, some people are concerned that heroic measures might be taken that will leave them in a condition that they might reject if capable, e.g. leading them to survive through the use of extraordinary means when there are already other serious, underlying illnesses which are life-compromising. It is clearly important that there is a conversation with the person chosen, that he or she agrees to act on our behalf and understands our wishes as far as possible.. (to be continued)
