Readings Next Week (JULY 31, 2022) 18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23 (Vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!)

Colossians 3:1-5,9-11 (There is neither Greek nor Jew, but Christ is all in all).

Luke 12:13-21 (A person's life does not consist of possessions.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

In Chapter 12 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples and the crowd on how to be ready for the coming judgment. A crowd of many thousands has gathered to hear Jesus. At first he speaks only to the disciples, reminding them that it is not persecution they should fear but the judgment that is coming for all who do not acknowledge the Son of Man. Suddenly a man in the crowd shouts out to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." He seems to have grown tired of Jesus speaking only to the disciples. Jesus offers the man no help. Instead he uses the question to teach what, in light of the coming judgment, life really consist of.

Jesus tells the crowd a parable. A rich man's lands have yielded more crops than expected. His response is not to consider how he might share all the extra food with others but to wonder how he can possibly store it all. He has what he thinks is a brilliant idea: to tear down his present barns and build larger ones. Then he will have many things stored up for years of eating, drinking, and making merry.

"You fool" is God's response to this man because that very night his life will be taken away. To whom will everything belong then, God asks. The rich man's world is small, just him and his possessions, and now he learns that he is to lose his life. What good are his possessions now? Jesus states the moral of the story. This is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasure for himself or herself but is not rich in what matters to God.

Centuries later St. Gregory the Great taught that when we care for the needs of the poor, we are giving them what is theirs, not ours. We are not just performing works of mercy; we are paying a debt of justice. Life does not consist in possessions but in sharing what we possess with others. The goods of the earth have been given to everyone. (Loyola Press)

Be Thankful

Be thankful that you don't already have everything you desire. If you did, what would there be to look forward to? Be thankful when you don't know something, for it gives you the opportunity to learn. Be thankful for the difficult times. During those times you grow. Be thankful for your limitations, because they give you opportunities for improvement. Be thankful for each new challenge, because it will build your strength and character. Be thankful for your mistakes. They will teach you valuable lessons. Be thankful when you're tired and weary, because it means you've made a difference. It's easy to be thankful for the good things. A life of rich fulfillment comes to those who are also thankful for the setbacks. Gratitude can turn a negative into a positive. Find a way to be thankful for your troubles, and they can become your blessings.

END OF LIFE DECISION-MAKING & ADVANCE CARE PLANNING ((Moira McQueen, PhD)

5. IS AN ADVANCE CARE DIRECTIVE LEGALLY BINDING?

Advance care directives should be DATED and signed by you, with two people as witnesses to your signature if the document stating your wishes is to have full legal authority. If you are not able to speak and consent for yourself at a certain stage then the wishes expressed in your legal directive are to be carried out as closely as possible by your substitute decision-maker. The substitute decision maker is legally obliged to follow your directive, showing the importance of having full and frank discussions of those wishes while we are alert and able to do so.

Although discussing death can be difficult, it is a compassionate as well as practical matter to engage in, since it relieves the decision-maker of guess-work and wondering what the person would want at end-of-life, a time that can be as hard on the decision-maker as on the dying person, given the emotions involved in dealing with people we love.
