Readings Next Week (SEPT. 04, 2022) 23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wisdom 9:13-18b

Knowledge alone has limits. We also need wisdom to understand the ways of God

Philemon 9-10, 12-17

Paul encourages one of his converts to consider his former slave a brother in Christ Jesus.

Luke 14:25-33

Jesus teaches about the demands of discipleship.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In chapter 14 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus is speaking to people gathered at the table about the difficulties of following him. This group of people is suspicious about Jesus, looking to catch him doing something wrong. Jesus speaks to them in parables, emphasizing that although there is a right way to be a disciple and enter into the kingdom of his Father, it is a difficult path to follow. Many, even some of the guests at the table, reject the invitation. So Jesus turns to the crowds and speaks to them of discipleship. Jesus explains that, when it comes to making a choice for the Kingdom of God, nothing can get in the way. When Jesus describes "hating" one's father and mother, he is not talking about feelings. Rather, he is emphasizing very strongly that choosing to be a disciple means that everything else—family, money, your own life—must come second. In Matthew's version of this story (Matthew 10:37), Jesus refers not to "hating" father or mother, but to loving them more than Jesus. Jesus makes it very clear that being a disciple is not easy. It means to bear one's own cross. These difficult sayings of Jesus are followed by two brief parables (a person constructing a tower and a king marching into battle) that make an obvious point—don't start what you cannot finish. Discipleship is difficult and is something we can commit to only if we are prepared to put the Kingdom of God before everything else.

REFLECTION: Sharing the Love of Christ “The Word Among Us

MOVED BY THE SPIRIT,. When Jesus was baptized in River Jordan, he wasn’t plunged into the depths of his Father’s love for him. He experienced the power of the Holy Spirit flooding his soul and driving him outward to the whole world:

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descend upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” (Lk. 3:21-22)

Then the Holy Spirit sent him out to share the good news of God’s love with everyone. Can you imagine the people’s surprise when they heard Jesus in the synagogue in Nazareth, where he had grown up? His faith and zeal were apparent as he told the people that Isaiah’s prophecy was being fulfilled in him. St Luke tells us, “All spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth.” Through the sacraments of initiation—baptism, confirmation and the eucharist, we too are gifted with the Holy Spirit and sent to continue Jesus’ evangelizing mission. We are invited to bring the good news of Jesus into our families, homes, neighborhoods, communities, parishes and workplaces.

Pope Paul VI, in the landmark 1975 apostolic exhortation Evangelii Nuntiandi (Evangelization in the Modern World), encouraged us as individuals and as parishes to consciously choose evangelization: “Evangelizing is in fact the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity. She exists in order to evangelize.” (to be continued).

CONGRATULATIONS to Melissa and Joe Burroughs and family on the occasion of the christening of their new born baby Maverick Gary. Our prayers and wishes to have him grow in good health, wisdom and grace. Welcome to the human family of God, Maverick Gary!

“Your God is ever beside you—indeed, he is even within you.” St. Alphonsus Ligouri

“Moreover the strongest support is provided not only to protect the young from evil, but also to rouse them and attract them more easily and gently to the performance of good works.” St. Joseph Calasanz

“How often I failed in my duty to God because I was not leaning on the strong pillar of prayer.” St. Teresa of Avila

“Forgiveness is not a sign of weakness; it is that which sets you free.” N. Mandela

DID NOAH FISH? A Sunday school teacher asked, “Johnny, do you think Noah did a lot of fishing when he was on the Ark?” “No”, replied Johnny. “How could he, with just two worms?”
