Readings Next Week (NOV. 13, 2022) 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Malachi 3:19-20

The day of justice is coming, says the Lord.

2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Paul urges the community to follow his example and to earn their keep.

Luke 21:5-19

Jesus predicts the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem and warns his followers that persecution will come before the end time.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In the context of Luke, today's Gospel appears near the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem, just prior to the events that will lead to his crucifixion. His warnings and predictions are ominous but can be read in many ways.

To those who first heard Luke's Gospel, those may have been words of encouragement. The destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem by the Romans was history (70 A.D.); Luke's Gospel, Catholic scholars propose, was written between 80 and 90 A.D. His audience was probably Gentile Christians. Luke here tries to interpret the fall of Jerusalem for them and to locate it in God's plans for humankind (salvation history). At the same time, Luke is suggesting to his audience that there will be a considerable elapse of time before Jesus' final coming. Luke's listeners have likely seen much upheaval and are anxious to know if these are the signs of Jesus' coming. Luke is urging greater patience.

In the second part of today's Gospel, Jesus warns that his followers will face persecution for their beliefs. Luke presents persecution as an opportunity for the followers of Jesus for "It will lead to your giving testimony" (Luke 21:13). In persecution God's wisdom and power will be shown in the example of followers of Jesus. Perseverance in the face of persecution will lead to their salvation.

Here Jesus is assuring his followers that God is present to all believers, even in times of trouble. Ultimately, Jesus will witness to this with his own death. As disciples of Jesus, we try to follow his example, trusting in God's mercy and protection, even when we are facing difficulties. (Loyola Press)

EVANGELIZATION MEANS BEING A SIGN OF GOD'S PRESENCE

The invitation to evangelize is first of all an invitation to pray. It's an invitation to move beyond your own needs in prayer, to give voice to other people's needs, especially their spiritual needs. Remember, our goal as believers is to lift one another up into the arms of Jesus, who is our final destiny and our greatest need.

The simplest way to enter into the gift of evangelizing prayer is to ask for the grace to see someone from God's point oaf view. Choose someone with an immediate need. Describe his or her situation to Jesus. Ask God what that person might need: a new job, a successful surgery, the mending of broken family relationships. Then allow these needs to act as a doorway for even deeper prayer, prayers that touches on the person's deepest, most spiritual needs. And pray like this often, asking Jesus to meet this person's greatest need of all—a living relationship with God as his or her heavenly Father.

When we pray this way, we join ourselves to Jesus, the great High Priest who stands before the throne of God. We also open ourselves to the charisms and gifts that God wants to give us to help that person.

For example, when Therese's brother Robert was diagnosed with stage-four-cancer, she began praying by offering up to Jesus all his medical treatments. She gave God her own fears too. Then she asked God to show Robert's deeper needs. This was difficult, partly because Theresa and her brother spoke to each other only a few times a year, at best. "What can I do Lord?" she prayed. Then she sensed God saying, "Why don't you be his sister and call him!" so she committed herself to calling Robert every Sunday. God's compassion and healing touched them both over the three years between his diagnosis and the time of his death. (to be continued)

ON EUTHANASIA AND ASSISTED SUICIDE

I confirm that euthanasia is a grave violation of the law of God, since it is the deliberate and morally unacceptable killing of a human person.. This doctrine is based upon the natural law and upon the written word of God...Moreover, the act of euthanasia appears all the more perverse if it is carried out by those, like relatives, who are supposed to treat a family member with patience and love, or by those , such as doctors, who by virtue of their specific profession are supposed to care for the sick person even in the most painful terminal stages....The choice of euthanasia becomes more serious when it takes the form of a murder committed by others on a person who has in no way requested it and who has never consented to it. The height of arbitrariness and injustice is reached when certain people, such as physicians or legislators, arrogate to themselves the power to decide who ought to live and who ought to die. (Saint John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae, nos 65-66)

After trick-or-treating on Halloween, a teen takes a shortcut through a cemetery. Halfway across, he's startled by a tapping noise coming from the misty shadows. Trembling with fear, he spots an old man chipping away at a headstone.

"I thought you were a ghost," says the relieved teen. "What are you doing working so late?"

"Oh, those idiots," grumbles the old man. "They misspelled my name!"
