Readings Next Week (NOV. 20, 2022) FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING OF THE UNIVERSE

2 Samuel 5:1-3

David is anointed king.

Colossians 1:12-20

Hymn to Jesus as the first-born of all creation.

Luke 23:35-43

Jesus is crucified under the title King of the Jews.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all.

Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all. (Loyola Press)

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT IS NOVEMBER 27TH

The month of November is traditionally a time during which the Catholic Church remembers and prays for those who have died. Why not offer some Masses for your dear ones who have passed on?

MISSAL MANIA Your weekend Missal comes to an end next weekend, Solemnity of Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe. Make sure you pick up a new missal and be ready to follow the Mass and readings on the First Sunday of Advent. Missals cost $5.00 each and are available at the entrance. Hurry! Numbers are limited.

CHRISTMAS MASS SCHEDULES

CHRISTMAS EVE: 4:30 PM - HIGHLAND GROVE

CHRISTMAS DAY 9:00 AM—CHANDOS

11:00 AM—CARDIFF

EVANGELIZATION MEANS BEING A SIGN OF GOD'S PRESENCE

VISUALIZE GOD'S PRESENCE. One way to enter into evangelizing prayer is by meditating with a photograph of a person, or by closing your eyes and imagining Jesus approaching him or her. Notice the affection Jesus has for the person and imagine them embracing. Describe his or her need, and then listen for what Jesus might say. Pray in this way, being careful to also thank Jesus for the big and the small ways that he is already active in this person's life.

Another way to pray is to imagine this person inside a building, perhaps in his or her home. Then imagine Jesus knocking at the front door, a door without an outside knob. Is the door clogged or jammed shut? Is it rusted? Is it too heavy? Then imagine that something remarkable happens. All of a sudden, the condition of the door doesn't matter. As you pray, Jesus passes right through the door and puts his arms around this person. And the strength of his love gives him or her the confidence and the inspiration to accept Jesus and the grace of his salvation. To be continued)

ON EUTHANASIA AND ASSISTED SUICIDE from the Catholic

Organiation for Life and Family

Life!.....Life with its highs and its lows! Some welcome and others reject life, with its joys and its disappointments. Some rejoice in it and others are troubled by it. Each day the national and international news are filled with events that illustrate the many varied attitudes people take in the face of the undeniable challenges of life.

This is a reflection on one of the most burning issues of our time: euthanasia and assisted suicide; a reflection in which the very difficult realities of our common human experience: sickness, suffering and death, are calmly considered; a compassionate look at the circumstances of real people and an invitation to each of us to have the courage to love and to allow ourselves to be loved until life's natural end.

While Canadian legislators and those of many other western societies have sanctioned assisted suicide and euthanasia, Catholics must not become complacent. We must act on our deepest convictions—advocating on the one hand for the repeal of unjust laws and on the other for increased access to compassionate and palliative care. (to be continued)

“Virtue is nothing without the trial of temptation, for there is no conflict without an enemy, no victory without strife.” St Leo the Great

“It is better to be the child of God than king of the whole world.” St. Martin of Tours

“The Lord has turned all our sunsets into sunrise.” St. Clement

The human race has one really effective weapon, and that is laughter. Mark Twain (1835 – 1910)

Two British sailors attended a church service in Stockholm. Not speaking a word of Swedish and not wishing to appear out of place they sat behind an important looking man and when he stood up or knelt down, they did the same. At the end of the service, the pastor made what was evidently an announcement, whereupon the man in front of the sailors rose to his feet, and they did likewise - to a roar of laughter from the congregation. As the sailors left the church, the pastor spoke to them in English, so they asked him the reason for the laughter.

"Oh!" he said, "I mentioned that next Sunday morning there was to be a baptism and would the father of the child please stand up."
