of thanks and appreciation to the planners and organizers of the event; to those who provided the delicious food shared by all, your presents, gifts, cards, money and most of all your presence for gracing the occasion. It was indeed an unforgettable send-off party. THANKS! THANKS! THANKS! frvic

SOME PARISHIONERS OF ST MARY'S CHURCH IN CHANDOS made it a habit of dropping few extra coins in the "poor box". Over several months the donated amount reached $177.00 which is now forwarded to the Canadian Food for Children, a charitable organization headed by Dr. Simone. A little generosity goes a long way.

A BIG WELCOME TO DENNIS HEBERT. He is a new member to join the Parish Finance Committee with his expertise as an accountant by profession. We are blessed to have him join.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEW TRANSITIONAL DEACON, Mr. Peter Bissonette ordained last June 15, 2024 at St. Michael's Church in Cobourg. Canonically, after six months, he will be ready to be ordained as a priest for the diocese of Peterborough. Pray for him. CONGRATULATIONS TO Liam James Coughlin for receiving the sacrament of baptism this weekend at the St. Mary's Church in Chandos/Apsley. May he grow in health, wisdom and grace with the Lord. WE EXTEND OUR CONGRATULATIONS AND OFFER PRAYERS for all our graduates, Morgan Burroughs, Julia Burroughs, Noah Ruthledge, as they move onto new pathways in life. We are very proud of your accomplishment and achievements. Good luck!

A BIG WELCOME to Fr. Darlington Oparaike as our new pastor. He hails from Nigeria. He belongs to a religious community called the "Spiritans". He has been the associate pastor of St. Joseph Church, Bowmanville, prior to his coming to Cardiff Ont. He was ordained in 2015. Three years, prior to his coming to Canada he served in Zambia. Hoping his ministry in our local church be an enjoyable and memorable one.

Pray for those in need of healing and good health

READINGS NEXT WEEK (JUNE 30, 2024) 13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Death entered the world through the work of the devil.

2 Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15

As Christ became poor for our sake, so must we share with those in need from our abundance.

Mark 5:21-43 (shorter form, Mark 5:21-24,35b-43)

Jesus heals a woman afflicted with a hemorrhage and raises Jairus's daughter from death.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel reports two stories of healing. One story tells us about a father's great love for his dying daughter. The other story tells us about a desperate woman who risks much as she seeks healing from Jesus. In each story, the request for healing is itself a courageous act of faith, and yet very different circumstances are represented by the lives of each suffering person.

Jairus is described as a synagogue official, a man of considerable standing in the Jewish community. Distraught over his daughter's poor health, he approaches Jesus and asks him to heal her.

As Jesus leaves with Jairus, Mark describes a second person who seeks healing from Jesus, a woman with a hemorrhage. This woman secretly touches Jesus from behind and is immediately cured. In response, Jesus turns and asks who touched him. Jesus' disciples, always a little clueless in Mark's Gospel, help us envision the scene. The crowds are pushing in on Jesus, and yet he, knowing that power has gone out of him, asks who touched him. The woman could have remained anonymous, yet at Jesus' question she steps forward and acknowledges what she has done. Jesus responds by acknowledging her as a model of faith and sends her away in peace.

At this point, we can imagine Jairus's impatience with Jesus; his daughter is dying and Jesus hasn't helped him yet. As if to build a sense of urgency, messengers suddenly arrive and confirm Jairus's worst fear: his daughter has died. Jesus curiously ignores their message and reassures Jairus. When they arrive at Jairus's home, they find family and friends mourning the girl's death. Jesus enters the room of the dead girl, takes her by the hand, and instructs her to arise. Jairus's faith in Jesus has not been in vain; his daughter is restored to life.

The contrasts between Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage are stark and revealing. One is a man, the other is a woman. One is a public official, an important person in the community. The other is a woman who has lost everything to find a cure to a condition that separated her from the community. One approaches Jesus publicly. The other approaches Jesus secretly. Yet in each case, faith leads them to seek out Jesus in their time of need.

The Gospel concludes with Jesus' instructions to remain silent about this miracle. This is typical of Mark's Gospel and is sometimes referred to as the messianic secret. Repeatedly, those who witness Jesus' power and authority are instructed to not speak of what they have witnessed. These instructions appear impossible to obey, and it is difficult to understand the purpose of these instructions. But in each case, they seem to emphasize the fact that each individual, including the reader of Mark's Gospel, must, in the end, make his or her own judgment about Jesus' identity. Each individual must make his or her own act of faith in affirming Jesus as God's Son. (Loyola Press)
