SOME PARISHIONERS OF ST MARY'S CHURCH IN CHANDOS made it a habit of dropping few extra coins in the "poor box". Over several months the donated amount reached $177.00 which is now forwarded to the Canadian Food for Children, a charitable organization headed by Dr. Simone. A little generosity goes a long way.

READINGS NEXT WEEK ( JULY 07, 2024) 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

Ezekiel 2:2-5

The Lord sends the prophet Ezekiel to the Israelites.

2 Corinthians 12:7-10

Paul bears insults and weakness for the sake of Christ.

Mark 6:1-6 (Jesus is rejected in his hometown.)

Background on the Gospel Reading

This Gospel immediately follows upon last week's stories of the raising of Jairus's daughter and the healing of the woman with a hemorrhage. It sets the context of our Gospel readings for the next two weeks in which Jesus will extend the work of his ministry to his disciples.

Today's Gospel describes what many believe to have been the typical pattern of Jesus' ministry: teaching in the synagogue followed by acts of healing. In his hometown of Nazareth, the people are amazed by what they hear, but they also cannot comprehend how someone they know so well might move them so powerfully.

In this Gospel, we learn some interesting details about Jesus and his early life. Jesus' kinfolk know him to be a carpenter, an artisan who works in wood, stone, and metal. He probably learned this trade from his father. Family members of Jesus are also named. Mark describes Jesus as the son of Mary, which is an unusual designation. Adult males were more typically identified with the name of their fathers. It is unclear

why Mark deviates from this custom.

Brothers and sisters of Jesus are also named. Scholars are divided on how to interpret this. As Catholics, we believe that Mary was and remained always a virgin, thus we do not believe that this Gospel refers to other children of Mary. Some have suggested that these family members might be Joseph's children from a previous marriage, but there is little evidence to support this. Others explain this reference by noting that the words brother and sister were often used to refer to other types of relatives, including cousins, nieces, and nephews.

This Gospel tells us that Jesus is hampered from performing miracles in Nazareth because of the people's lack of faith. Jesus is said to be surprised by this. He did not predict or foresee this rejection. In this detail we find a description of the very human side of Jesus.

This passage unfolds a continuing theme of Mark's Gospel: Who is Jesus? His kinfolk in Nazareth might know the carpenter, the son of Mary, but they do not know Jesus, the Son of God. Mark is foreshadowing Jesus' rejection by his own people, the people of Israel. He is also reflecting on and trying to explain the situation of the community for which he wrote. While many of the first Christians were Jewish, Christianity took hold and flourished in the Gentile community. Mark's community was mostly a Gentile community, who may have been experiencing persecution. By showing that Jesus himself was rejected, Mark consoles and reassures his first readers. He also prepares us to accept this possible consequence of Christian discipleship. (Loyola Press)

DATES TO REMEMBER

JULY 28TH (SUNDAY) -PILGRIMAGE TO THE SHRINE OF ST. ANN IN CORMAC. The pilgrimage Mass will be at 11:00 am at the Shrine. The Mass with the Anointing of St. Ann's oil will be celebrated at 2:00pm. For more information visit <http://www.cormacpilgrimage.com>

REFLECTION: These days the notion of a common day of rest is a distant memory for most people. In North America, for instance, Sunday has become for many people a day to shop. There has always been the need for some people to work on Sunday, but we are missing something important by failing to observe a sabbath day. If we think about the motivation for such a day that is given in Deuteronomy, which is that we need a day off from our normal cares and concerns, then as Christians each of us should regularly reconsider our priorities and establish a day when we refrain from doing whatever it is we do during the rest of the week. Not because it is a "sin" if we don't, but because God wants us to have one day that is different from the other days of the week, one that exists primarily for our benefit. John McLaughlin
